About me

I consider myself a loyal person and always try to be of help.
Solving problems and fixing things is my forte. If I find a chair with a loose screw I will tighten that screw.
In my spare time I play a lot of games, frequent Internet forums and watch anime.
It may seem like quite the contrast but I also enjoy spending time in nature, whether it's for just a walk or a longer hike.
I hate being late and will usually plan to arrive at least half an hour early.
I absolutely love dogs!
